

It is ridiculous for the FCC to consider NAB's petition 04-160. The services I get from my XM radio system are not available in the relatively small and unsophisticated radio market in which I live.